Miss Elizabeth Fly left the first of the week for the Southwestern University at Georgetown, and Miss Lorene Merriman for the Baptist Academy at San Marcos where they will resume their studies.

WATCH PARTY.

The Watch Party given by the American Legion Club on New Year's Eve proved a source of much pleasure to those who attended.

The Hondo Orchestra furnished music for those who wished to dance, and tables were placed conveniently for the players of Dominoes and Forty-two.

At midnight sandwiches, coffee and cake was served to the club members, their wives and invited guests.

Mrs. W. A. Schmitt and son, Milton, were the guests of Mrs. Ed. de Montel last week-end.

GENTLEMEN HONOR GUESTS.

The handsome new home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heath was thrown open to the members of the Ladies Forty-two Club, their husbands and friends, on Saturday night, Dec. 29th, the occasion being a party in honor of the gentlemen. Bridge, High-Five and Forty-two furnished diversion. Twelve tables of players assembled in rooms which were beautifully decorated to carry out the Christmas theme. English ivy gracefully clinging to window draperies, suspended from chandeliers and banked on the mantel, with poinsettia and roses lending a touch of color, created an atmosphere of warmth and cheer in keeping with the holiday season. Tallies and score pads were in Christmas design and, for the honor guests' high score trophy, a box of cigars was given. Mr. M. Muennink won high score in Forty-two; Dr. W. H. Smith in Bridge and Mr. L. E. Heath in High-five. In cutting for the trophy Mr. L. E. Heath won the cigars.

A two course luncheon favoring the holiday theme was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Batot, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boon, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bless, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Brucks, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Cockrell, Mrs. Fletcher Davis, Miss Octavia Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heath, Miss Loraine Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Mimke Muennink, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller, Mrs. Ed de Montel, Mr. E. A. de Montel, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rothe, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Speece, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schweers, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schuehle, Mrs. W. A. Schmitt, Mr. Milton Schmitt, Miss Daisy Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Starnes.

EMBROIDERY CLUB ENTERTAINS

The home of Mrs. Earl Starnes was the scene of a delightful party when the members of the "Embroidery Club" entertained their friends on Friday, December 28.

On arriving the guests were ushered into the living room, which was beautifully decorated in Autumn leaves, where tables were arranged for Forty-two.

After a number of exciting games the guests were invited into the dining room, which was a profusion of evergreens and Christmas flowers, where small tables, gaily attired in evergreens and poinsettias, were tastefully arranged. Much merriment was had in finding one's place card, which was a suggestion of the New Year.

Each member of the club received a useful gift from some other member, and each guest a dainty powder puff.

A delicious two course lunch was served.

The members present were Mesdames Marvin Beal, Horace Bradley, Will Crow, O. A. Fly, Ray Jennings, Henry Merriman, M. Muennink, Eugene Mofield, W. H. Smith, Newell Woods, Earl Starnes; Misses Fanny Carle and Della Peters. The guests were Mesdames Roy Stone, Geo. Carle, A. Gilliam, Will Muennink, O. H. Miller, Charles Schuehle, H. J. Meyer; Misses Evelyn Lacy, Caro Fusselman, Daisy Scott, Dee Crow, Willie Dee Fly and Hettie Fusselman.

DINNER PARTY.

Miss Clara Wurzbach entertained Saturday evening with a dinner, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Wurzbach, at the Lomo Alto Ranch. The rooms of the Wurzbach home were artistically decorated in Christmas greens, poinsettias and mistletoe. A joke Christmas tree was used as a center piece for the dinner table and proved a source of great enjoyment to the guests. It was a small tree, not over two feet tall and it was decorated with tinsel and ornaments. When dinner was over, the little tree got its work in and for nearly an hour kept the company grouped around the dinner table busy and happy. Everyone expected something and everyone got it—with a laugh thrown in. The gifts were dispensed one at the time, and not until one package had been duly discussed, its merits tested, and the joke arising therefrom appreciated by all, was another expectant on-looker favored.

At six o'clock dinner was served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Wurzbach, Mrs. Emilia Haby, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Wurzbach, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar J. Schuehle and Mrs. Chas. J. Ahr; Misses Hilda Wurzbach, Manda Wurzbach, Olivia Huegele, Katy Wurzbach, and Clara Wurzbach; Messrs Edwin R. Wurzbach, Elmer C. A. Huegele, Oscar Bendele, Clarence Huegele, Gus Mechler and Allen Huegele.

After dinner a game of Bunco was played. Useful prizes were awarded. Miss Olivia Huegele was the lucky one, capturing ladies' first prize; Miss Manda Wurzbach, second prize; and Mrs. Alf. J. Wurzbach, booby prize. Gentlemen's prizes were awarded as follows: Elmer Huegele, first prize; Alfred Wurzbach, second prize; and Gus Mechler, the booby prize.

W. Burell. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joe Geant. The bride wore a lovely dress of white georgette, trimmed in beads and pleating, and her veil was caught with orange blossoms. The bride's maids were in yellow taffeta, and the two little girls were in peach colored taffeta.

LADY WAS IN A BAD FIX FROM NERVOUS INDIGESTION

Biloxi, Miss.—"I had, for a year or more, nervous indigestion, or some form of stomach trouble," says Mrs. Alonzo Ford, 1117 Clay Street, this city. "The water I drank at that time seemed to constipate me. I would suffer until I got so nervous I wanted to get down on the floor and roll. I felt like I could tear my clothes. "Every night, and night after night, I had to take something for a laxative, and it had to be kept up nightly. My side would pain. I looked awful. My skin was sallow and seemed spotted. I would look at my hands and arms, and the flesh looked lifeless. "I happened to get a Birthday Almanac, so I told my husband I would try the Black-Draught, which I did. I took a few big doses. I felt much better. My liver acted well. I made a good, warm tea and drank it that way. Soon I found that nervous, tight feeling was going, as was the pain in my side. I found I didn't have to take it every night. Soon, after a few weeks, I could leave it off for a week or so, and I did not suffer with constipation. . . I gained flesh. I have a good color, and believe it was a stubborn liver, and that Black-Draught did the work. "I went to my mother's (Mrs. Deenan) one day, and she wasn't well at all. . . I told her we'd try Black-Draught. We did, and now she keeps it to take after eating. It certainly helped her, and we neither will be without it in our home. It is so simple, and the dose can be regulated as the case may be. We use small doses after meals for indigestion, and larger doses for headache or bad liver." Thedford's Black-Draught liver medicine is for sale everywhere.

Taking America Off Its Feet!

QUIHI NOTES.

Last Sunday afternoon the large Christmas tree in Bethlehem Lutheran church was plundered and the boys and girls present received each a nice collection of Christmas eats.

The old year was closed and the new year opened with appropriate divine services at the Lutheran church.

Mrs. L. Burge, nee Moehring, of San Antonio was a welcome visitor last Friday with friends in this community.

The annual meeting of Bethlehem Lutheran congregation was held Wednesday afternoon. The various reports made show the congregation to be in a flourishing condition. Messrs. Luebbe Boehle, G. A. Grell, C. W. Grell and John Balzen were elected as vestrymen of the church. By resolution it was agreed to hold English services regularly in the future every second Sunday in the month. The installation of the newly elected vestry will take place at the conclusion of next Sunday's morning service.

The Luther League is arranging to give a program on the night of January 20th.

NOTICE THIS.

I started my meat market without giving the exact date when I would open. I expected a meat cutter here on the first of January but, as he cannot come at that time, I will be obliged to close for a while.

Am very thankful for the patronage while the market was open, and I wish all a happy and a prosperous New Year.

Most of our subscribers renew their subscription, but there are some who settle up annually in the fall and occasionally some one over-looks this little matter and lets a year or two slip by unnoticed. This little reminder is to request all who can to remember the printer when making their fall settlements. Fair crops and good prices have made money fairly easy for most people. Pay these small amounts to the printer and make it "easier" for him.

We thank you—now!

BECOMINGNESS DETERMINES CHOICE OF MILLINERY

STYLES in fall and winter millinery were never more diversified than they have been since the beginning of the present season, and there is no doubt that this convenient state of affairs will continue as long as winter lasts and longer. The woman in search of a hat may make her choice with the assurance that whether it be large or small hat, whether it be made of silk, velvet, duvetyne, felt or velours, whether it is trimmed with flowers, feathers or ribbon, the hat is safely within the wide borders of good style—if it answers her requirements as to becomingness.

Four different materials and four modes of trimming are shown in the group pictured here. The hat at the top is a medium sized brown duvetyne with a rolling brim faced with moire ribbon and is trimmed with a band and plume of naere ostrich. At the right is a very smart dress hat of blue and silver brocade trimmed with silver braid and rows of white brilliants. The large hat in the center shows an adroit drapery of brown velvet, from Paris. The outline of the drape is patterned after the characteristic head-dress of Alsace-Lorraine. Below in the circle is an extremely smart model of black hatters' plush, with upturned brim and a crown trimming of the material plaited. The trimming is completed with a large jet ornament.

Ostrich and other feather fancies appear to be the most popular of all trimmings this season, though tinsel braid, chenille embroidery, silk and metallic flowers and colorful ornaments find a place on many models.

IN CLOTHES FOR OUTDOORING KNITTED FABRICS EXCEL

THE interest in sports clothes has widened so much during the past few seasons, and so many styles have been advanced, in everything from hats to shoes, that the term "sports clothes" has become inadequate as a name. The term "outdooring clothes" has been suggested as more nearly correct, and may be applied to sports styles, except when the garment under discussion is designed for some particular field of active sport, as golfing, riding, hiking or tennis.

In outdooring clothes the vogue of knitted materials has its greatest stronghold. The smart suit shown in the illustration is an example of the present style in a garment suitable for any one of a dozen uses. It is made of knitted shetland wool in a soft tan color with a pattern knitted in the material at the hem of the skirt and in the sleeves and blouse. The placing of the belt shows an approach to the normal waistline and the blouse fastens with loops and buttons.

New skirts for sport costumes are being shown in plain materials or in scotch plaids of large pattern. For wear with them there are clever jackets of tweed, printed suede, and camel's hair, or sweaters fashioned in blouse effects with patterns of bright colors.
